

AMOS Health & Hope

Urban Clinic Rotation

Summary:

AMOS Health & Hope offers a 4 weeks clinical rotation at our urban clinic. Health educators need supportive supervision to ensure ongoing training and mentorship that helps them provide the most effective care in their community. The volunteer that participates in this rotation will have the opportunity to shadow the doctors at our clinic and support supervisors during their visits to the community and experience up-close the AMOS method of supportive supervision.

Expected Duration of Applied Position:

- 4 weeks (august-may).

Duties and Responsibilities will include the following:

- Shadow our current professionals.
- Support the training of health educators on how to prevent diseases.
- Support our support groups: chronic patients, pregnant women and youth.

Values and Interpersonal Competencies:

- Models AMOS values and ethical standards.
- Promotes the vision, mission and strategic goals of AMOS.
- Displays cultural, gender, religion, and age sensitivity.
- Strong interpersonal, teamwork and communication skills.
- Capacity to plan, prioritize and deliver tasks on time.
- Capacity to engage with national and international staff.
- Enthusiastic about the mission of AMOS.
